How and for how long is your data stored?

How

The data processing is performed through paper supports or IT procedures by specially authorized and trained internal subjects. Such internal subjects are allowed access to your personal data to the extent that it is necessary to carry out the processing activities that concern you. The data belonging to particular categories are treated separately from the others also by means of pseudonymisation or aggregation methods that do not allow you to be easily identified.

The Data Controller periodically verifies the tools through which your data is processed and the security measures provided for which it provides for constant updating; verifies, also through the subjects authorized to the treatment, that personal data of which the processing is not necessary is not collected, processed, filed or stored; verifies that the data is stored with the guarantee of integrity and authenticity and their use for the purposes of the treatments actually performed. The Data Controller guarantees that the data, even after the verifications, are found to be excessive or irrelevant will not be used except for the possible retention, according to the law, of the deed or document that contains them.

Where

The data is stored in paper, computerized and software archives located within the European economic area. Your personal data may also be stored in the following non-EU countries - with full assurance of the guarantees provided by European legislation. For more details on the guarantees adopted by the Data Controller, please refer to the paragraph "Non-EU data transfer" of this information.

For how long

The personal data processed are kept for the time necessary to carry out the activities related to the management of the contract that you have stipulated with the Data Controller and for the fulfillments, including those required by law. arising therefrom.
